PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Compassionate God,

You speak your word to us through prophets of long ago and you continue to reveal your message of love today.

With great expectations we look to your Spirit to work in our world, empowering us to serve you as Jesus did.

May we listen for your word and respond generously to your call. Renew in us the grace of our baptism.

Strengthen married couples, single men and women, deacons, priests, sisters and brothers as they seek to serve you by sharing their love and compassion.

Grant wisdom to those who are discerning their call.

With gratitude we proclaim the Good News of Jesus in the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen

What don't you know that you hope God will reveal to you?

What have you been asking Jesus to tell you that is still unanswered?

What teaching of the Church don't you understand or agree with?

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus explains that there is more he'd like to tell us but we can't handle it yet.

Why aren't we ready for it? Because we have to first let the Holy Spirit prepare us. We have to let God transform something within us, and until we surrender to that process, the truth is more of a burden than a blessing, which we readily reject.

Everything that Jesus said and did came from the Father through the Holy Spirit. God gave us that same Spirit, that same Wisdom, that same Truth, but the gift is useless unless we submit to the Spirit's purifying activity.

Of the Trinity, it's the Father who forgives sins. It's Jesus who delivers the forgiveness. And it's the Holy Spirit who sanctifies us and empowers us to go and sin no more.

In the confessional, the priest is the presence of Jesus and the whole Body of Christ (which is the Church). Absolution is an action of his Holy Spirit, but it's more than just the removal of guilt; it replaces the sinful vice with the virtue that will help us avoid that vice in the future. The Sacrament of Confession is a direct contact with the Holy Trinity who embraces our repentance and transforms us to increase our holiness.

To receive this grace, we only have to be open to it and interested in cooperating with God. Humility is necessary to be teachable and transformable.

The unanswered questions in our lives become personal revelations when we earnestly seek to do the Father's will in unity with Jesus while growing in holiness through the indwelling presence of his Holy Spirit.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Write a list of questions you have for Jesus. What do you have trouble understanding?
2. After making the list, ask the Holy Spirit to become your Teacher. Ask Jesus to help you become teachable.
3. What gift of the Holy Spirit do you find most helpful in guiding you through life's difficulties?
4. How does it help you to figure out and/or do the Father's will?
